

Job Description

Job Title: Projects Manager

Department: Medical BG

Basic Job Purpose:

Lead R&D projects, by effectively managing project activities. Ensure the achievement of the planned time, budget and specifications.

Main Duties:

- Responsible for planning and allocation of resources to projects while balancing knowhow & schedule constrains.
- Responsible for leading a cross-functional project team including R&D, QA, RA, Engineering and other core-team members driving to successful and optimal delivery of project objectives
- Execute & follow-up the Project plan including all related activities
- Identify project risks and proactively drive mitigations
- Monitor and assist R&D & Other cross-functional team members to overcome technical and execution risks.
- Supply all required tools, infrastructure to allow employees to do their job efficiently.
- Drive design for reliability, manufacturability, serviceability, performance, cost and development time.
- Drive system problem report process: prioritization, resolution & customer satisfaction feedback closure.
- Transfer the product to production with the help of the Eng. group
- Support Service with testing tools & documents.
- Sub-contractor's management and follow-up.
- Drive feasibility activities & investigations.
- Shared accountability with project leaders to deliver high quality components per project plans
- Responsible for outsourcing of components to assure technical proficiency and quality deliverables.
- Ensure traceability of requirements: System level.
- Recommend corrective and preventive actions to retire technical and execution risks

Requirements:

- Technical knowhow/background (Degree in Engineering and/or Physics)
- Process and Quality Oriented
- Thorough multi-disciplinary system understanding
- Experience in working and leading in a matrix organization environment
- Experience in medical systems development process – significant advantage
- Experience in medium/large size established companies - advantage
- System Engineer background - advantage
- Organizational : capable of working in dynamic & global environment
- Strong planning and execution follow-up
- Good communication & presentation skills
- Experience in Technical and operational risk management
- Utilize resources effectively and with balance
- Delegate and empower Team
- Leading Capabilities
- Good interpersonal relationships
- Ability to see the big picture and drill down on details when needed

SENS YOUR CV : lumenis.99.21C@applynow.io