

Regulatory Affairs Specialist

A medical device start-up company in Yokneam is looking for a RA specialist. Provide support for the regulatory department to ensure compliance of the company's products with world-wide regulatory and quality requirements. Compose, review, and summarize product technical data, including verification and validation protocols and reports, that are required by regulatory agencies to demonstrate compliance with global regulations and standards.

Requirements:

Bachelor's degrees in engineering/ life sciences

3-4 years of previous regulatory experience in the medical device regulatory industry

Location: Yokneam

anna@hrhome.co.il