

Project Manager/ R&D Engineer

Ceretrieve is medical device start-up company developing an innovative neurovascular system seeking for super talented and highly motivated project manager to take active part in the company mission to improve stroke treatment.

Job Description

- Leading the project and integration between different functions at: R&D, QA, RA and clinical
- Responsible and managing project plan and timelines
- Manage manufacturing plans for clinical trials
- Plan and execute Design Reviews
- Manage sub-contractors in Israel and abroad
- Responsible for the DHF, DMR and DHR documents and files
- Manage the V&V tests and activities
- Develop and update Solidworks models, drawings and assemblies
- Design of test fixtures/Jigs and manufacturing tools

Job Requirements

- B.Sc. in Mechanical/ Biomedical Engineering
- 5-8 years' experience in a medical device field
- Experience in medical device lifecycle: development, manufacturing and regulatory submissions
- Experience in delivery systems and Nitinol design- advantage
- Experience in leading medical device project- advantage
- Proficient in English (speaking, reading and writing)
- Proficiency in Solidworks
- High level of hands-on technical capability
- Team player

Location

Yokneam Illit

Send your CV to: maysa@ceretrieve.com