

OB-Tools is a medical device company in the field of obstetrics which is currently developing a monitoring system for delivery rooms. The offices are located in Nesher.

We are looking for a 4th year student of Bio-Medical Engineering to join our R&D and clinical team.

The position includes:

- Supporting clinical trials in hospitals
- Carrying out lab tests
- Verification and validation testing
- Writing test protocols and reports

Requirements:

- Availability for two working days a week
- Ability to work independently
- Attention to detail and orderly work
- MATLAB skills

Please send CV to: naama.rivlin@ob-tools.com