

R&D Student Position

Ceretrieve Ltd. is a medical device company developing an innovative neuro-thrombectomy system for ischemic stroke endovascular treatment. The company's mission is to improve the stroke treatment and patient's clinical outcomes.

Ceretrieve is seeking for talented student to join our R&D and Engineering team, to learn and participate in the product development and manufacturing projects.

The candidate shall have a mechanical or biomedical background, highly motivated, good hands on and understanding of mechanics, and with passion to learn and develop an innovative medical device.

The student will gain practical experience in the medical device industry, and an opportunity for a future full-time position.

Qualifications

- Mechanical or Biomedical Engineering students with 1-2 semesters left or fresh graduates from university/Technion, that can commit to a minimum 40% position.
- GPA>80
- Proficient in English (reading and writing)
- High level of hands-on technical capability
- Proficiency in Solidworks- Advantage

Location

Yokneam Illit

Please send CV to: Info@ceretrieve.com

Please indicate in the email subject: STUDENT POSITION-Name-Faculty