

Technical Project Manager

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Technical Project Manager is responsible for the overall coordination, execution, control and completion of R&D projects ensuring consistency with company strategy, quality assurance, commitments and goals. The project manager interacts with all functions and levels throughout the company and outside the company working in an international, multidisciplinary and multi-project environment. The position reports to the Program Manager and requires on-going communications with a team based in the US, Europe and Israel.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Lead the planning and implementation of R&D projects
- Facilitate the definition of project scope, goals and deliverables
- Develop full scale project plans including timelines, tasks and resources requirements
- Monitor and report on project progress to all stakeholders
- Deep understanding of the technical details of the project
- Provide technical leadership, lead problem solving and support to project team
- Ensure project deliverables meet the quality requirements

REQUIREMENTS

- Electrical / Biomedical / mechanical Engineering degree
- Knowledge of project management techniques and tools
- Direct work experience in R&D project management from design inputs to production in a complex regulatory requirements, documentation, and quality processes.
- Prior experience with international companies -an advantage
- Strong verbal and written communication skills in English - mother tongue level

Location: Sharon area

Please send CV to: jobs2@stepup-hr.com